

A Multidisciplinary Graduate Student Conference

LANGUAGE: WHAT IS IT GOOD FOR?

APRIL 27, 2024
9AM – 5PM
WOLLMAN HALL

THE NEW SCHOOL
FOR SOCIAL RESEARCH

Eugene Lang, Room B500
65 West 11th Street

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

WHO scholars working across psychology, philosophy, linguistics, sociology, anthropology, journalism, literature, neuroscience, education, & design, whose work critically engages with language use

WHAT submit a paper or poster that speaks to:

- Contributors to communicative success & characterizing ‘failures’
- Interlocutor effects in conversation
- The interplay of language structure, multimodal cues, context, biology, & history in linguistic interpretation
- Competing disciplinary conceptualizations of language (& their implications); opportunities for interdisciplinary insight

WHEN submissions due by FEB 15, 2024

HOW see the link in the caption for more information

questions? email langdev@newschool.edu

THE NEW SCHOOL
FOR SOCIAL RESEARCH

---

---